

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision is refreshing. Finally, there is a balance to the overwhelming bias of CBS, NBC and ABC. To require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is well within their rights. After all, they do OWN the stations, dont they?

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This does exactly that.

Thank you.